Please read each section carefully and fill in your child's name and sign where you agree. In some cases you may be signing in more than one section. If you have multiple children in the school, you may put all of their names in the student block.

Permission for student to ride as a passenger with another student

The undersigned parent/guardian of _____ (student) hereby grants permission to said student to ride as a passenger in a vehicle driven by another student of Trinity School at Greenlawn to school events. We hold the school and all of its employees, sponsors, and volunteers harmless, waiving all claims against said school for any injury or damage that may occur in connection with the transportation covered by this permission.

Permission for student to transport himself or herself to school

This is to verify that _____ (student) is a licensed driver and has my permission to drive himself/herself. We understand that qualified students may drive themselves to school events, and may not take other passengers other than siblings, unless permission to do so is given below. We hold the school and all of its employees, sponsors, and volunteers harmless, waiving all claims against said school for any injury or damage that may occur in connection with the transportation covered by this permission. We also understand that Trinity School reserves the right to revoke this driving privilege.

I certify that the above student has liability insurance coverage of at least $250,000 for the duration of this academic year.
